

The theory is perfect. If you construct the diagram to scale, you will see that the two triangles are congruent; however, PD does not intersect AB, so there is no relation between angles PAC and PBD.